

SWEET ADELINES INTERNATIONAL

Family Chorus 2011

You are invited to participate in a special Sweet Adelines International Family chorus performance during the 2011 International Convention and Competition in Houston, Texas.

To participate, you must be a current Sweet Adelines member and register with at least one female relative (mother, daughter, granddaughter, aunt, daughter-in-law, etc.) Relatives who participate do not need to be members of Sweet Adelines International. They must have an all-events or a ticket for chorus finals if they are not attending other sessions.

Links to the sheet music and learning CD along with further information will be e-mailed after April 1, 2011. Downloads are $10 each. You must buy at least one download/packet to participate, but may purchase one for each participating family member. Due to copyright laws and restrictions, the CDs and sheet music may not be duplicated without permission.

This year, after the Family Chorus registration deadline (March 31), there will be a random drawing of entries until the first 250 slots are filled. Names will be posted on the website after April 5, 2011. E-mail notification will be sent after April 15, 2011.

The performance will be held on Saturday, October 22, 2011, following the chorus finals, immediately preceding the performance of the new quartet champion.

Claire Domenick and her daughter, Nicki Hartshorn, will be directing the 2011 Family Chorus. Master Director Claire, also Region 19's Director Coordinator, and Nicki are both members of Greater Harrisburg Chorus.

You will receive more information on rehearsal times, costume and other requirements prior to the convention.

Participation is limited to 250 singers, so get your registration in early. Deadline is March 31, 2011. Credit card registrations only! Make barbershop singing a family affair — register today!
